The Parable of the Good Samaritan
Luke 11:25-37
Author: Tugboat Mousie

One day, Jesus told this story.
A man was forgetting when he was kind to his neighbors. The robbers killed him and left him stuck off the road. The Samaritan helped him and took him to the village.

Two other men passed by the man, but did not stop to anything was wrong. Finally, a third Samaritan stopped to help the man and took him to the village.

The first Samaritan
took him to the village. The Samaritan
took him to the village. The Samaritan
took him to the village.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan
Luke 10:25-37
Mother Toddler Ministry
2019

One day, Jesus told this story. A man was traveling when he was met by robbers. The robbers beat him up and took everything he had. The man was left all hurt and by the side of the road.

Two other men each passed by the man, but did not do anything to help him. Finally, a third man, who was a Samaritan came by. He felt badly for the man and stopped to help. He poured oil and wine into his wounds.

He put bandages on the man, and took him to an inn. He gave the innkeeper money and told him to care for the man. Jesus explained that the Samaritan is the one who did what God wants us to do. We call this story, "The Good Samaritan."
